

Fields of Operation

- Proposing and defending changes or the drafting of rules and regulations that increase the efficiency of the financial system and enhance its instruments.
- Developing and providing channels of communication with the Executive, Legislature and Judiciary, Class Entities, Consumer Protection Bodies, unions and other Brazilian and international entities and organisms.
- Coordinating, when necessary, the hiring of professionals to defend the legitimate interests of its associates.
- Carrying out and publishing studies and research with the aim of enhancing the financial system.
- Proactively putting forward the role and performance of the financial system.
- Issuing opinions, as the case may be, on subjects of interest to public opinion.
- Developing education and training programs for the employees of the associate members.
- Implementing self-regulation programs.
- Providing its associate members with material information on issues involving their business activities.
- Encouraging and supporting projects intended for preserving biodiversity and the rational use of natural resources.
- Encouraging and fostering the financing of initiatives that go hand-in-hand with sustainable development.